

I should be the one to choose what I listen to on the radio NOT THE FCC OR THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BROADCASTERS.
When I am traveling I don't have to find radio stations every 30 to 40 min or try to find one that has weather, traffic or just the music that I like to listen to, that is dangerous when driving, and I know where it will be on xm-radio no matter where I am in the US.